DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 2. Claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Paul (U.S. Patent 6,850758 B1) in view of Hodges (U.S. patent 5,754,4952) further in view of Martineau (U.S. Patent 5,915,226).

With respect to claims 1, 5, Paul discloses method and / or a portable telephone terminal device a recording medium (See e.g. identifier stored in a Subscriber Identity Module, SIM card, permanent and or an insertable memory module, Co. 1, Lines 28-33) to record information of a subscriber (See e.g. identify the subscriber from the information encoded on the SIM card, Co. 1, Lines 36-40). Further Paul discloses the telephone call based (I.e. call origination, call hold, call waiting, etc. 78, 80, 82, 84 of Fig. 2) on information indicative of master-slave relation (See e.g. master-slave relationship Co. 5, Lines 43-59). In an analogous field of endeavor, Hodges discloses means for restricting execution of a service based on the information (See e.g. MIN, 312 of Fig. 3, Co. 4, Lines 59-61). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide above teaching facilitating service restrictions that incurs payment except for telephone call fee based on information (See Martineau, e.g. Co. 2, Lines 16-20. The motivation comes from Martineau, the subscriber can at any time turn his subscription into a restricted mode when he wants to lend his handset to someone (See e.g. Co. 2, Lines 65-67).

Regarding claim 8, recording medium is User Identity Module UIM card, Subscriber Identity Module card SIM, or Universal Subscriber Identity Module USIM card (See e.g. Paul Co. 1, Lines 36-40, and / or Martineau, Co. 1, Lines 61-67).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2-4, 6-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Regarding claims 2, 6, the prior art of record fails to disclose or render obvious that the restriction means executes restriction according to permission or no permission from a second terminal device having a recording medium that records information indicative of master-slave relation being master, when the information recorded in the recording medium of a first terminal device is indicative of slave

Conclusion
